"German Syrup"

Here is an incident from the South

—Mississippi, written in April, 1890,

just after the Grippe had visited that country. "I am a farmer, one of those who have to rise early and work late. At the beginning of last Winter I was on a trip to the City of Vicksburg, Miss., where I got well drenched in a shower of rain. I went home and was soon after seized with a dry, hacking cough. This grew worse every day, until I had to seek relief. I consulted Dr. Dixon who has since died, and he told me to get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. Meantime my cough grew worse and worse and then the Grippe came along and I caught that also very severely. My condition then compelled me to do something. I got two bottles of German Syrup. I began using them, and before taking much of the second bottle, I was entirely clear of the Cough that had hung to me so long, the Grippe, and all its bad effects. I felt tip top and have felt that way ever since."

Widowed Domestic.

The reason for getting married which beckons so many domestic servants often results in their finding themselves either widowed or deserted in the course of a few years with a number of young children to provide for. They are generally inhabitable and willing to return to domestic life, but that way of earning a living is barred to them by the necessity of supporting their children. Knowing of many such cases, a benevolent gentleman down in Lancashire proposed the establishment of homes which would take care of the children,

the mothers contributing toward their support in proportion to their own earnings.

The author of this scheme of relief believes that it would be gratefully accepted by the mothers as a most welcome change from the unceasing cares which now make up their daily lives.

At the same time it would benefit society by increasing the supply of women servants, a want which becomes more pressing every year. As a further help toward that object it is proposed that all the children admitted into the homes should be specially trained for domestic service in its several departments. This would enable them to go out into the world at a comparatively early age, and to help their mothers instead of taxing their scanty resources.

The main difficulty of realizing the scheme which certainly has a taking look is in raising the funds. In the nature of things the homes would not be wholly self supporting, even if the expenses were cut down in all possible ways. It would be necessary, therefore, to supplement the income derived from the mothers' contributions by subscriptions collected from the charitable public, and one hesitates to advocate another appeal to that incessantly solicited quarter.—London Globe

THE GERMAN EMPEROR.

A Berlin dispatch says Dr. Louthold has officially declared that he considers it incompatible with the oath of responsibility vested in him to conceal the true physical condition of Emperor William, therefore he could not omit making reports which show that the Emperor is not in full possession of his normal faculties. After this declaration had been made Professor Esmarch was appointed medical attendant to the Emperor, upon his consenting to withhold from the public all information concerning the Emperor's real mental condition.

Sensational dispatches regarding the Emperor state that he not only suffers from aural discharge and the displacement of his knee cap, but the wound in his knee refuses to heal and he is in continual torture. It is feared that the Emperor is suffering from cerebral congestion, as he has had several pronounced attacks of coma.

It is rumored that it is proposed to establish a regency for the Empire consisting of Prince Henry, the King of Saxony, the Grand Duke of Baden and Chancellor Von Caprivi. Prince Henry visits England with a view of holding a family council, in which the Queen and the Empress shall be first consulted.

If it be true that Emperor William's mind is affected and that a Regency is to be established for the German Empire great changes may take place in a short time. There is a party springing into existence in several parts of the Empire which demand State rights and which, in the event of the disability of the Emperor to direct affairs, may cause much trouble and bring Bismarck to the front again in German politics.

THE OHIO CONTEST.

The triangular political contest in Ohio is said to be getting quite interesting. There are three tickets in the field, the Democratic, Republican and People's Party. The People's Party, which is composed principally of farmers, does not expect to elect its candidates for State offices, but it does hope to elect enough members of the Legislature to hold the balance of power and defeat the re-election of John Sherman to the United States Senate. As the members favor many principles in common with the Democrats, and none that are advocated by the Republicans, it is surmised that the People's Party and the Democrats will nominate fusion tickets for members of the Legislature in many of the agricultural districts and thus insure the defeat of Sherman. Should such an arrangement be made it is believed that Campbell, the Democratic candidate for Governor, will get the votes of many farmers, and at least offset the defection in Cincinnati, where a corrupt clique is fighting Campbell because as Governor he did all in his power to prevent its members from plundering the taxpayers. At any rate the McKinleyites fear the farmers, and are appealing to the corporations and monopolists in all parts of the country to come to their rescue with coin and legal tender notes, and it seems now, notwithstanding all that is said about tariff and free coinage, that the result of the election will depend upon the quantity of "fat" that can be fried out of the manufacturers for McKinley.

VERMONT EXCITED.

Governor Page of Vermont has issued a proclamation convening the Legislature in extra session to take action on the Direct Tax, which an Act of Congress provided should be refunded to the several States. Vermont's proportion of this tax is $190,000, that being the amount which it contributed by direct taxation to the General Government. The Governor made formal application for the coin, which he wanted in gold, as he is not a silver man, but he did not receive it coin, or paper either, but instead he was sent a bill for $575,000 for a debt incurred by the State for arms and accoutrements furnished by the General Government to equip its forces at the time of the Fenian raid at St. Albans. Vermont sold those arms to France during the Franco-Prussian war and put the money in the State Treasury, although the State had not paid the General Government a cent for them. Now the Legislature is to be convened in extra session to determine what to do about it and as the General Government, in consequence of the extravagance of Mr. Reed's Congress, is short of funds, it may insist upon the payment of the balance due it from the Green Mountain State.

The President will stop at Albany, New York, next Tuesday on his way to Vermont and a joint reception will be tendered him on behalf of the State and the city by Governor Hill and Mayor Manning.

THE WHEAT MARKET.

The Bulls and Bears Wildly Excited. Special to the Journal.

CHICAGO, August 15.—December wheat reached 1.08 on the regular board to-day and this afternoon sold on change at 1.10. Later on calls were quoted at 1.14 and sold as high as 1.18. Of course these were not marked figures, but they serve to show the frame of mind traders are in after this exciting week. Friday, which was thought to be a busy day by brokers, sank into insignificance before to-day's session of the Board of Trade. It was one of the wildest days ever known on the floor. December wheat touched 1.08. Through consternation, the bears, who, while partially prepared for yesterday's boom, were completely dumb-founded this morning, when the bulls sent prices up with a frightful rush. Such jumping figures as to-day witnessed, have not been witnessed since Hutchinson's famous corner in 1888. The price remained at 1.08, but in a short time the bears were soon rallying, and with a mighty onslaught brought it down to 1.05½. But they could not hold it out at that high price. When the session closed the figure was standing at 1.05½.

Before the Board opened this morning there was a great deal of surprise and excitement. The reports of short European crops, the prospective famine in Russia, Germany's demand, and the confident spirit of the bulls, affected dealers, and when trading began the wheat-pit filled with traders and the day's excitement quadrupled.

A mighty yell went up when the gong announced the opening of to-day's business. It was impossible for some time to tell what the price of wheat really was for there were half a dozen different prices yelled out in different portions of the pit, ranging from 1 to 1½ to 1.12½. It was simply a matter of take what you can get and take it quick, said one trader, as he emerged from the throng screaming. The struggling men, after a time of excitement, settled down for a little. For a couple of minutes business was done on an enormous scale. The bears made frantic efforts to push figures down, but failed. European buyers at New York began coming in strongly. The bulls rallied with a whoop, and then came the wildest market scene in years. Wheat went up and down in big leaps, going to 1.03½, then to 1.05 almost in one bound. At 1.03½ Ed. Parker came into the pit as a big buyer, but could find no sellers. The price went down to 1.04, then bounded back and forth between that and 1.05 for ten minutes. The bears made another desperate effort to send prices down. Momentarily the price retreated, but then leaped to 1.05½. 1.05, 1.06½, 1.07, 1.07½, and finally reaching 1.08 within half an hour.

All sorts of stories are flying about. A large number of traders talked about a shortage in Europe, others asserted their belief that Jim Keene of New York is responsible, that he has taken revenge for that experience in 1878 when a little flyer on the Chicago Board of Trade cost him several millions. Some said Keene, Phillips, Armour and R. P. Hutchinson were responsible, others that Keene was backed by a powerful syndicate of New York capitalists and that Hutchinson was one of the leaders. There is nothing reliable about any of these rumors. The fact remains that the market simply went wild to-day. During the last advance from 1.05 to 1.08 the scene of confusion and excitement on the floor was indescribable. Every time there was an advance the bears got frightened and exerted their utmost to unload at the top price for fear of a drop as sudden as the rise. Then several minutes later when the price again advanced the men who had sold were clamoring to buy back, being willing to pay from one to three cents more than they sold for. From the visitor's gallery the wheat-pit looked like an assemblage of dangerous lunatics. Men crowded together in a mass, discarded coats and hats and clawed each other like wild animals, while a constant deafening roar, out of which no intelligence seemed to be picked, rose to the ceiling, and after the market closed there were many traders who were frightened at the idea of holding wheat over Sunday at 1.06½. The timid ones, however, do not seem to have scared other traders, for, as noted above, December wheat went to 1.10 on the curb before 4 o'clock, and adventurous brokers were slinging calls at from 1.14 to 1.18. What Monday will bring forth is a matter of grave concern to many, but is still talking of higher wheat, the bears not saying much. One remarkable thing is that there has been no failures. Everybody got through the clearing house all right on Friday's business, but it is not unlikely that as a result of to-day's wildness, some unlucky dealers may go broke. Still, there is no rumor on the Board at the close of the trading, of the prospective failure of any individual or firm.

Chinese Forgers Arrested. Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 14.—The revenue officers last night seized in Chinatown ten thousand forged labels similar to those used in distinguishing manufactured opium which was held by Chinese shop owners prior to the passage of the McKinley bill. The genuine labels all bear the stamp of Assistant Revenue Officer Thomas, and he pronounced the stamps seized last night to be forgeries. Wong Lee Ong and too other Chinese were arrested as the forgers on strong circumstantial evidence. To-day an extensive raid was made in Chinatown, and over $150,000 worth of opium was taken to the Custom House for examination as to the genuineness of the labels. The opium bearing genuine labels will be returned to the owners. Had forged labels been used successfully, it would represent a loss of about $30,000 to the Government.

The Treasury in a Comfortable Condition. Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—Secretary Foster made the following statement to-day in regard to refunding operations, and the financial situation generally. About eighteen and a half million of four and a half per cent bonds have been extended and applications have been received covering two and one half millions more. What the final outcome will be, of course I do not know. It is probable that a considerable portion of the balance will be extended. The Treasury is able to pay those not extended. By extension we increased the National Bank circulation nearly five millions, the outlook is that considerable more increase will be effected, while there is less money in the treasury than for many years past, it is in a comfortable condition.

A Tribute to Lowell. Special to the Journal.

LONDON, August 15.—Services to the memory of the late James Russell Lowell were held to-day at Westminster Abbey by Farrar. Among those attending the services was Minister Lincoln. Cannon Cannon Farrar delivered a brief oration, paying a brilliant tribute to Lowell as a poet, author and statesman, and also referred to him as "a sacred union that bound England to America more closely," and closed by saying, "he has now passed away, loved and revered by the two mightiest nations of the world."

The San Jose Races. Special to the Journal.

SAN JOSE, August 15.—The attendance was large at the last day's racing. The watch ran between the two-year-olds, Starlight and Rosierio, was won by the former in 2:26½, Rosierio being distanced. Rowena, a yearling, trotted a mile in 2:37. Una Wilkes won the 2:24 class trot, Guide second. Best time 2:22. Palo Alto trotted a half mile in 1:07. McKinney won the 2:27 trot, Maud O second. Best time 2:22. The special race was won by Lightfoot. Best time 2:29.

A Fire Raging in Norfolk. Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—A fire is raging in the business portion of Norfolk, Va., and all communication with that city has been cut off. Several large ware houses have been burned, and it is reported the loss will reach a half-million dollars. The fire department of Portsmouth has been called on for assistance.

At Steamboat Sunday.

The Nevada Jockey Club will hold its sixth meeting next Sunday at Steamboat Springs. There will be running and trotting races for liberal purses, and some fine sport may be looked for. The Emporium Baseball Club of Carson and the Comstock of Virginia will meet for their sixth game.

J. P. Sweeney's colt, Gibber, won a race at Willow Friday. Best time 2:29½, and his favorite Alpheus, also won a race, best time 2:31. Mr. Sweeney's friends will be pleased to hear of the good records being made by Gibraltar's colts.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Mann, of Washington, D. C., has donated lands valued at $30,000 for the foundation of an Episcopal Cathedral at the National Capital.

For the seven months of 1891 ending July 31st, the exports of breadstuffs were $84,700,000, a decrease of $8,063,000 compared with the same period in 1890. In consequence of poor crops in Europe, and a bountiful harvest in the United States, it is expected that the exports of breadstuffs for the five months from July 31st to December 31st will exceed those of the same period last year by many millions of dollars. Russia, which has been the great grain growing country of Europe, has a scant harvest this year, and the United States will have to supply the deficiency.

WHAT IS SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLILE, Naught, N. J.

Bar silver 100%.

Mathew Levy of Winnemucca is visiting Reno.

Archib Farrington has returned from San Francisco.

Senator Foley returned yesterday from California.

Lee McLothe was reported decidedly better last evening.

Sheriff Stewart of Esmeralda county visited Reno yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shearer leave tomorrow morning for Ogden.

The Board of Equalization will meet tomorrow for the transaction of business.

The east-bound express train, due here at 10:05 last night, was four hours late.

J. L. Wines and his son M. L. Wines of Butte, Montana, left last night for San Francisco.

Truckee has thirty-five business houses and it is said twenty-seven of them sell intoxicating liquors.

James Miller of Long Valley Cal., arrived yesterday afternoon and left last night for San Francisco.

Thomas Wright, formerly of Pinte Meadows, Humboldt county, arrived from San Francisco yesterday.

Captain P. J. Dunne, formerly of Virginia City, passed through yesterday on his way to Ogden to attend the Grand Lodge of A. O. U. W.

T. K. Stewart and Fred Gould who have been surveying the Military reservation at Fort McDermitt returned last night, having completed the contract.

Assessor Easton, of Lander county, has assessed the C. P. R. R. in his county at $20,000 per mile for the main track and $10,000 per mile for the side track.

The Central Nevada says there are four Huntington crushers in operation at the Pittsburg mills, there is plenty of water; the ore bins are well supplied and the mine is being operated successfully.

Richard Ryland is taking time by the forelock, by burning a million or more bricks, to be prepared for the wave of prosperity which will sweep the country when an Act for the free coinage of silver is passed by Congress.

The Central Nevada says the State and county tax in Lassen County is $3 25 on each $100 valuation. There is great inducement for Lander capitalists to invest in Government bonds, which cannot be taxed for any purpose.

The usual races and base ball game will take place at Steamboat Springs to-day under the auspices of the Nevada Jockey Club. Liberal purses will be hung up for the races and the Emporium and the Comstock clubs will play for $50 a side.

The report that the child of B. F. Woods in the west end of Powning's Addition, had the diphtheria, fortunately proves to be unfounded. The child is cutting teeth, and the frightened mother thought it had diphtheria, because its mouth is sore.

Notwithstanding the dull times, Burke Brothers, contractors and builders, have about all they can attend to. They are building the new Congregational Church; also a two-story brick residence for G. Chism, and a brick store for S. T. Burich on North Virginia street.

The Pioche Record says 150 men are wanted by the Pioche Con. M. & R. Co. this month. Of this number 100 must be practical miners, who will be engaged there and in the vicinity taking out ore from the company's various mines to have a good supply at the smelters when starting. Fifty additional men can find work along the line of the Jackrabbit railroad.

The public schools will reopen on Monday, August 24th and all the pupils are expected to be promptly on hand, as active work will commence on the first day, and it is expected to put in a full month before the State Fair. The custom in Reno is to open the public schools a week earlier than in other parts of the State, as a week's vacation is given at Fair time.

The extension of the Truckee Division of the C. P. R. R., from Winnemucca to Carlin, reduces the crews on passenger trains from eight to six and dispenses with the services of a Division Superintendent and Train Dispatcher at Carlin. A similar change was made a few years ago, but in consequence of many accidents on the Salt Lake Division, owing to its great length, the Humboldt Division was restored.

CAPT. JOHN PALMER.

The Newly Elected Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Captain John Palmer, who has just been elected at Detroit Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic to succeed General Vessey, was born on Staten Island, N. Y., in 1843. He enlisted in the Ninety-first New York Volunteers, September 19, 1861, and was constantly with that regiment until it was mustered out in 1865, taking part in all its engagements. He was seriously injured at the battle of Five Forks. Since the war he has been engaged in the fresco painting and decorating business at Albany, and had the contract for the decorating of the new State Capitol. While he was Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief he was made President of the National Encampment held at Dayton, Ohio. He proved a model presiding officer.

When the National Encampment appointed a committee to visit President Cleveland and the heads of departments in Washington in the interests of the veterans of the war, Captain Palmer was its Chairman, and through his exertions and the member of the committee, many members were retained in the public service. At the National Encampment held in Boston last summer, Captain Palmer was Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions. He was one of the originators of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Bath, Steuben county, which was built by private contributions under the auspices of the Grand Army of the State. In the face of great difficulties and opposition he raised a large sum of money in Albany, and the building was finally completed and turned over to the State.

REMOVING A LANDMARK.

Dismantling the California Pan and Battery Mill on the Comstock.

The California pan and stamp mills, the latter an eighty-stamp mill, on the Comstock, are being dismantled to save the payment of taxes and the wages of a watchman. The mills were erected immediately after the discovery of the bonanza in the Consolidated Virginia and California mines in 1874. The bullion output of the mills for nearly two years after their erection averaged about $100,000 a day. The cost of the mills was about $1,500,000, and they were owned by the Bonanza Company, Mackay & Fair, and Flood & O'Brien.

It is said that from 1875 to 1878, the rainy days of Virginia City, the mills produced over $30,000,000 in bullion. In 1887, the mills were operated by water power from the 1740-foot level of the C. & C. shaft, the power being transmitted to the surface by wire ropes.

THE REDLANDS FLOOD.

A Reno Man Tells His Experience.

Dr. Wagar has received a letter from Alexander Backus, well-known in Reno, who was in the midst of the young Johnstown flood at Redlands, California, on the 12th instant. He says the water rushed down in torrents, inundating the whole town, it being three feet deep in the streets. People had to wade to get anywhere, and he had to enter his room through the window. After the water subsided the streets presented a frightful appearance. There were dead horses and cattle, wagons, boxes, barrels and everything movable, and a house was planted square across the railroad track. Fortunately no lives were lost, though many persons were frightened almost to death. One building was struck by lightning, though the inmates escaped without injury.

Assessment Roll of Humboldt County.

The Silver State says: "The assessment roll of Humboldt county for the year 1890, foots up $3,009,006—real estate, $2,217,227; personal property, $781,729. This is an increase of $37,560 over the assessment of last year. The assessment of the Central Pacific Railroad Company for 1891, amounts to $1,768,329, a decrease of $66,942 from that of last year. This was the value given in by the company and County Assessor Guthrie had no authority to raise it, as the authority to fix the value of railroad property is now vested in the State Board of Assessors."

Pine Nut Stocks to be Listed on the Board.

The Virginia Chronicle has the following relative to Pine Nut:

"Articles of incorporation have been drawn up and a stock company is to be formed, whereby certain claims in the Pine Nut district are to be listed on the San Francisco Stock Exchange. Oliver Roberts of Carson, Hobe Holman of Virginia, A. Burnaby of San Francisco and Charles Colburn of Carson are the principal movers in the scheme. The locations to be taken in by the company are the Zirn, owned by Otto Schultz and Zirn, the Mascott, the Mountain View and others owned by members of the stock company."

"As the new district has developed nothing of value, at least there is no tangible proof of the fact, the above mentioned movement would seem rather premature."

"Since the time of the purported rich discovery made by Zirn some months ago, the district has been overrun and honey-combed by enthusiastic prospectors for precious metals. But they have failed to find color in any of the claims outside of Zirn's."

"The latter nomadic individual exhibits gold and silver quartz specimens, which he claims were taken from the mine he has bulkheaded and shielded from view. In fact no one knows what is back of the mysterious bulkhead but Zirn himself. Hundreds of capable miners since the Zirn discovery have diligently prospected the surrounding hills, but not one, not interested with Zirn, has exposed anything of value."

"It looks like a great big 'fake,' worse than that unearthed in the Meadow Lake fiasco, or the fudging of the buried treasure of the ill-fated Donner party."

Bachelor Life in Singapore.

Many of the white men in Singapore keep bachelor quarters, and one description of a bachelor's bungalow will suffice for all. Two young Englishmen have a one story rambling house among some coconut palms, covering a lot of ground and open on every side. Enter in and sit. Leave your pith helmet at the door, and one of the bachelors says: "Now, wouldn't you take a gin fizz? It's very nice." And before the visitor can answer he calls out, "Boy!" when from some unforeseen screen or crack a China boy appears and gets the order.

In a few moments he returns with a long glass filled with "gin fizz" and powdered ice, and then the host goes on and asks the guest to take champagne and port and sherry and cognac and a julep, and—I can't go on. There were more, but I really forget the names.

This is hospitality in the orient. There are sixteen servants for these two white boys, and such attendance and obsequiousness spoils them, let alone the question of ruining their stomachs by so many liquor concoctions. — Toronto Globe.

An Introduction to Samuel Rogers.

On a certain day we went to call at Mrs. Procter's with our father. We found an old man standing in the middle of the room, taking leave of his hostess, nodding his head—he was a little like a Chinese mandarin with an ivory face. His expression never changed, but seemed quite fixed. He knew my father and spoke to him and to us, too, still in this old, fixed way. Then he looked at my sister. "My little girl," he said to her, "will you come and live with me? You shall be as happy as the day is long, you shall have a white pony to ride and feed upon red currant jelly." This prospect was so alarming and unexpected that the poor little girl suddenly blushed up and burst into tears. The old man was Mr. Samuel Rogers, but happily he did not see her cry, for he was already on his way to the door.—Mrs. Ritchie in Macmillan's Magazine.

A Narrow Escape.

A flash of lightning struck a beautiful young lady at a southern watering place, but, strange to say, without any disastrous consequences. The lightning first grazed the well padded bodice of the young lady, slipped over the upholstered hips, tore off a plait of false hair which hung down her back, entered the "improver" and glided from the false calves into the heels of her high boots, through which it passed into the ground. Thus the fair maiden escaped all injury, and only her artificial teeth chattered through fright at the suddenness of the thing.—Berliner Tageblatt.

Storks never seem to have been common in Italy. Apparently the two great routes of migration are by Spain and north Africa, or Turkey, Asia Minor and Palestine, and though a few travel over Italy none stay there to nest.

The other morning while making repairs to a residence in Moulton township, O., carpenters came upon a nest of bats in a window casing. They killed 250 of the animals, which ranged in size from an inch to seven inches in length.

A Dear Bitch. An attempt was recently made at San Francisco to smuggle $50,000 worth of opium through the custom house, concealed inside of bananas. A custom house officer saw a particularly fine looking bunch and thought he would try one, when he discovered, at the first bite, the fact that put $25,000 into his pocket.—Journal do Comercio.
